

Downy Mildew Confirmed in Third Site in Monroe County

Dr. Mary Hausbeck, Professor and Extension Specialist
Department of Plant Pathology, Michigan State University

Downy mildew was confirmed on cucumber and cantaloupe plants from the same homeowner's garden in Monroe County on July 3rd. As this is a homeowner's garden, the acreage involved is small.